SUMMARY

Graphic designer and marketing analyst with a 360° scope: brand, internal and external communications, events, video and content. Marketing lead at Athon Energia, reporting directly to the General Director, taking projects from briefing to delivery, including suppliers, contracts and budget. Combines a design and audiovisual production background with business vision, process organization and intern supervision.

EXPERIENCE

Athon Energia | São Paulo, Brazil

Mid-level Marketing Analyst — Jan 2026 - present

Junior Marketing Analyst and Graphic Designer — Dec 2023 - Jan 2026

Marketing Intern — Jan 2022 - Dec 2023

- Marketing lead for the company, reporting directly to the General Director with a 360° scope: branding, external marketing, internal and corporate communications, events, suppliers, budget and results analysis.
- End-to-end production of the company anniversary event (visual identity, backdrop, photography, coffee, lunch and happy hour for 100 employees) and the annual awards, keeping the quality of previous editions on a smaller budget.
- Coordination of two monthly internal events: Bom dia Athon (all-hands meeting, with an agenda built together with senior management and HR) and Resenha (themed team-integration gathering).
- Governance of internal communication channels (Google Chat, corporate TV, email and intranet) and supervision of the intranet redesign with the design intern team.
- Editing of corporate, event and social media videos since 2022 (monthly between 2022 and 2024) and engagement campaigns such as winter coat drives, blood donation and Environment Week.
- Organic growth of the company LinkedIn from about 10K to 20K followers.
- Email marketing and landing pages in RD Station, with emails built in HTML, AI automation for lead routing and a content pipeline built from scratch in Asana.
- End-to-end supplier management, contract review with the legal team, booth setup, promotional materials control, and executive and investor presentations.
- Performance tracking in Google Analytics, Meta Business Suite and LinkedIn Analytics.
